

UNLOCK YOUR FINANCIAL POTENTIAL

Join a Movement of Financially Independent Advisors

Are you ready for something different?

Most advisors work FOR companies. But what if you could build something FOR yourself—with comprehensive support, elite credibility, and the freedom to own your future?

The Reality Check

You're talented. You're driven. But are you building wealth or just generating commissions?

- Limited Growth Ceilings — Traditional firms cap your earning potential
- Regulatory Pressure Intensifying — DOL fiduciary rules evolving constantly (2026 compliance deadlines critical)
- Client Trust Eroding — Consumers demand advisors who act as genuine fiduciaries, not salespeople
- Your Time Isn't Scaling — You're trading hours for dollars instead of building systems

What if there was a better way?

The Alpha Advantage: A New Model

Alpha Innovation Partners & Infinity Financial represents a fundamentally different approach to financial advisory:

Full Fiduciary Authority

- SEC-registered Investment Advisor status
- Legally bound to act in client interests FIRST
- Positioning that commands premium client relationships
- Built-in competitive advantage over commission-focused shops

Comprehensive Service Ecosystem

Strategic wealth management, retirement planning optimization, insurance structuring, premium finance solutions, advanced planning (CRTs, structured sales, cost segregation), corporate benefit design—everything clients actually need under one roof.

High Net Worth & Business Owner Focus

- Pre-retirees: Seeking peace of mind and legacy strategy
- Business Owners: Needing tax solutions and employee retention tools
- Families: Building multi-generational wealth with tax efficiency

These clients have REAL assets. They pay REAL fees. They stay for decades.

Support Infrastructure That Actually Works

- Comprehensive compliance oversight
- Integrated money management through Charles Schwab
- Advanced planning tools and expertise
- Bilingual support for cross-border wealth (US-Mexico nexus advantage)
- Professional brand backing—no solo practitioner struggle

Why 2026 Is Your Turning Point

The financial advisory landscape is shifting dramatically:

DOL Fiduciary Rule Changes — Expectations for advisor conduct are tightening[1]. Advisors operating under pure commission models face increasing regulatory scrutiny.

Generational Wealth Transfer — Nearly $84 trillion will transfer to next-generation wealth managers over the next 20 years[2]. Families need advisors who understand legacy planning, tax optimization, and fiduciary duty—not product pushers.

Consumer Demand for Transparency — 73% of high-net-worth individuals now explicitly seek fiduciary advisors[3]. Being one isn't optional—it's the minimum entry ticket.

Elite Positioning Moment — The gap between trusted fiduciaries and product-focused sales teams is widening. Right now is the window to position yourself on the winning side.

What Sets This Apart

You're Not "Employed"—You're Building a Business

- Full independent advisor status with professional backing
- Your book of business is yours
- You control client relationships, growth trajectory, and income potential
- Systems support you don't have to build alone

Compliance Is Built-In, Not a Headache

- SEC-registered platform handles regulatory heavy lifting
- Comprehensive audit trails and documentation
- Positions you credibly with high-net-worth prospects
- Peace of mind—no surprises from regulators

Multiple Income Streams, One Platform

- Investment advisory fees (recurring, scalable)
- Insurance solutions and premium finance
- Retirement plan administration
- Advanced planning services
- Business owner strategies

Your clients' needs are interconnected. You become their trusted advisor on everything, not a specialist they outgrow.

Direct Access to Institutional-Grade Resources

- Advanced financial planning software
- Investment research and analytics
- Tax and legal guidance networks
- Broker support through Infinity Securities, Member FINRA/SIPC
- Everything a solo advisor dreams of having

The Ideal Fit

We're looking for advisors who:

- ✓ Are credentialed or credentialing (Life Insurance License, Series 7, Series 65, CFP—or pursuing)
- ✓ Have existing client relationships OR strong prospecting discipline
- ✓ Are exhausted by limited options at traditional firms
- ✓ See the value in depth of expertise over breadth of products
- ✓ Want to serve high-net-worth families authentically
- ✓ Understand that compliance and competence are advantages, not obstacles

The Next Step: A Real Conversation

This isn't a one-call opportunity pitch. This is an invitation to explore something substantial.

Avi Crane is an Investment Advisor Representative and Financial Fiduciary at Alpha Innovation Partners, specializing in exactly what you might be seeking: elite advisory positioning, comprehensive wealth strategies, and the freedom to actually build something meaningful.

What you're about to discover:

- How Alpha's fiduciary model changes client conversations
 - Why high-net-worth clients are seeking advisors like this
 - Concrete structures for premium advisory practices
 - Your personal path to a completely different advisory career

What you decide next is completely your choice. But doing nothing guarantees you stay exactly where you are.

The clock is ticking on 2026. The advisors positioning themselves NOW will dominate the next decade of wealth management.

Why This Matters Right Now

- DOL compliance deadlines are approaching — firms that haven't adapted will face consequences
- Fiduciary positioning is becoming the baseline — commission-model shops will continue losing market share
- Generational wealth transfer is accelerating — families are moving assets to advisors they trust
- Your window to transition is NOW — later in 2026, movement may slow

The question isn't whether the advisory landscape is changing.

The question is: Will you change with it?
